

Serge Krancenblum
Group Executive Chairman
Group Management Board

Serge Krancenblum is SGG's Group Executive Chairman and is based in Luxembourg.

Serge is the SGG Group Executive Chairman.

He chairs the Supervisory Board of the Group having built SGG into the 4th largest independent investor services firm in the world.

He leads the group's M&A Strategy and is also responsible for its Corporate Social Responsibility.

Throughout his career, Serge has develop and managed cross border solutions for institutional investors, multinational corporations and entrepreneurial families. He is recognized for his leadership throughout the financial industry, and is frequently invited to speak at international events.

He also sits as an Independent Director on the boards of several real estate and private equity funds, in addition to a few directorships of private companies.

Serge is the Chairman of the Investment Facilitation Forum, a platform for organizations committed to foreign direct investment facilitation at a global level.

He is also the President of The LIMSA, the Luxembourg investor services association and of the LAFO, the Luxembourg Association of Family Offices.

In 2018, Serge was voted the European Personality of the Year at the Funds Europe Awards.